Welcome to Trereife

Where better to celebrate your wedding day than the former home of a Romantic Poet? Charles Valentine Le Grice arrived at Trereife in the late eighteenth century leaving behind a world of literature, poetry and romance in London. Had he stayed he may well have become as well-known as the great Romantic poets, his contemporaries and friends, Charles Lamb, William Wordsworth and Samuel Taylor Coleridge. Instead he found love, married and stayed in this beautiful spot in the far west of Cornwall. Years later his ancestors are still bringing romance to Trereife by inviting couples to tie the knot at this much loved ancestral home.

We cater for weddings from 2 (and we can be the witnesses!) to 250. From small events for just the day to 3-day exclusive use events over a bank holiday weekend. Say your vows in the beautiful, bright drawing room, enjoy a drinks reception on the stylish terraced lawns or just in front of the house with views to the sea and St. Michaels Mount in the distance. Or, if vintage is your thing, the walled garden is perfect for an afternoon tea-party theme before moving on to the wedding breakfast in one of four possible reception locations.

This is an historic and unique venue with a very special charm that could never be found in a hotel. We are a family-owned business with Trereife being a much loved home which has played host to many happy weddings and events over the years. We are pleased to be able to invite you to enjoy your special day in the company of your friends and family at Trereife.

Your Ceremony

If you would like to get married within the romantic luxury and exclusivity of Trereife, we are licensed for civil weddings and civil partnerships. Whether you celebrate with a handful of close friends and family or choose to have a larger ceremony with up to 80 people, the elegant drawing room at Trereife is a special place to be.

Alternatively, if you are looking for a traditional church wedding ceremony nearby, the picturesque Madron Church is extremely popular as well as the nearby churches of Paul, Pendeen and Gulval, all a short drive away from Trereife.

After your service there are countless beautiful locations to have your wedding photos taken, from the elegant parterre grounds in front of the house to the beautiful walled garden, red walls illuminated in the summer sun.

Trereife is a beautiful location in the spring, with stunning early blossom bringing the gardens alive, whilst the long evenings of summer allow you and your guests to enjoy a late al fresco celebration. And Trereife really lends itself to winter weddings too, with large open fires in all the reception rooms bringing a warmth to the majestic, high ceilinged rooms.

Your Reception

Whether you have chosen to have your wedding ceremony at Trereife or at a local church your special day will have only just begun. We are an extremely flexible venue for wedding receptions and can cater for 2 to 250 guests.

Begin your day with drinks in the grandeur of Trereife's reception rooms or in the grounds of the estate, whether the terraced lawns or the walled gardens. Then choose to entertain your guests to a wedding breakfast in one of three wonderful locations.

The Dining Room

For small weddings of no more than 20, the dining room is perfect for an intimate celebratory meal, followed by drinks and entertainment in the drawing room.

The Courtyard

For wedding receptions of up to 70, a marquee can be erected in the historic main courtyard. Dine in the marquee and then enjoy drinks and dancing in the adjoining café-bar. The beauty of this option is that you won't have to think about any extra hire charges - the building contains toilets, a bar and kitchen space for your chosen caterers.

The Old Tennis Court

For larger weddings the tennis court at the end of the garden is the perfect spot for a marquee. Opt for one with window walls and look out over the 'ha ha' to the stunning country surrounds and, in springtime, perhaps even a foal or two! As the light fades, look back down the garden and take in the beauty of the floodlit house before heading back into the marquee for drinks, food and dancing.

We are fully aware that no two weddings are the same; in fact we are constantly surprised by the different twists and unique ideas that our couples come up with, so do please contact us directly for information regarding your individual requirements.

The Accommodation

The accommodation at Trereife is for the exclusive use of wedding guests and whether you choose to make a weekend of it or hire the house for one night only you can relax in the knowledge that you will be surrounded by your closest friends and family for the duration.

Our accommodation includes four beautiful, en-suite bedrooms in the main house and three bedrooms in the recently converted self-catering flats in the courtyard buildings, in total proving room for 14 wedding guests. To view pictures click here. All seven rooms are let on a B&B basis for weddings so all 14 guests will enjoy a full Cornish breakfast in the dining room of the main house. For the lucky 14 staying with us, all you'll need to do is stumble into bed when the reception is over but for others, don't worry, Penzance and Mousehole are only a short taxi drive away and we can recommend some excellent places to stay there.

Information and Costs

This is one of the most commonly asked questions but is almost impossible to answer in one line. Every wedding that takes place here at Trereife is different from the last but they are quite often made up from a different mix of elements that can be individually priced and we have gathered some of these together in a guide price list. The very best thing to do is call Pete or Georgie and have a chat through your ideas and dreams and maybe make an appointment to have a good look around.
